

FRESH FOOD

AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

Center for Hope and Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank are excited to offer a new way to get help with food.

Soon you will be able to pick-up your grocery order at our refrigerated lockers a time that works for you. We are testing this program. It gives you no-touch help with food when you need it.

More information is on the back of this flyer.

Frequently Asked Questions

Is this program a replacement of Center for Hope's food pantry?

No, this is not a replacement of Center for Hope's food pantry. This new program is being offered in addition to the pantry. Center for Hope and Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank are working together to offer this program.

What are the refrigerated lockers?

The refrigerated lockers are a touch-free and private way to get food. Anyone needing help but cannot come to the food pantry should participate.

Where are the lockers?

The lockers are located in the Center for Hope parking lot at 740 Park Road, Ambridge, PA 15003

Do I qualify for this program and how much does it cost?

This is a free program. Call Center for Hope with questions Monday through Thursday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 724-251-4899, ext. 117.

How much food will I get?

The amount of food you get is based on family size. Families will get a mix of fresh, shelf-stable and frozen food.

How do I place an order?

Orders are not being taken yet. Call Center for Hope to add your name to the list of people to try the program first. Center for Hope is available Monday - Thursday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 724-251-4899, ext. 117.

If I get food through the refrigerated locker, can I still get food through Center for Hope's food pantry?

Yes, you can still get help at the Center for Hope food pantry. The lockers are a new way to help families have enough food each month. If needed, you can place more than one order a month through the locker system.
