Still thriving after 35 years, our steel drum band remains to be one of the premier, and busiest, high school performing ensembles in the Tri-State area. So far this school year, the band has performed at 19 events, including appearances at 4 different school districts and 2 universities. As of today, they have an additional 16 performances scheduled that will keep them drumming throughout the summer.

Tonight, we would like to recognize the steel band students who represented Ambridge Area High School at the state level.
